

In Command of 30 Federal Soldiers. He

ONLY TWO OF SOLDIERS SURVIVED

Whole-sale Slaughter on Train, Shot Being Four
From Both Sides—A Non-Combatant Killed
Among the Killed—Was on His Way to the City.

Mejico City, April 27.—Refusals to surrender or to leave the train on which he said his command of thirty soldiers were brought to the capital a second lieutenant, little more than a boy, armed in battle yesterday with a force of 400 rebels, Jones, Guerrero. At the conclusion draw were heard in the nation's cities. The shots from the raised the sides of the train.

Civil Engineer Killed.
Many soldiers entered the camp occupied by passengers. Only damage. Luis Bustamante, a of the brief encounter the lieutenant and the soldiers were dead, and the remainder of the platoon were made prisoners. One of the arms of the lieutenant was shot away.

Demanded Surrender of Train.

The train was under command of Brigadier General. As the German troops were being carried on the Cuban division of the National railroad,

When the train stopped he sent forward a messenger to demand the surrender of the train and request if they would not surrender, to abandon the train in order that the lives of the passengers be not endangered.

Fresh from the School of Assassins, a military training school, the beach officer sent back word that he had his men on the beach in the first half of the time was lost in beginning the fight. The rebels poured down the embankment on either side of the train, and the shooting was begun by both sides.

Passengers in Panic.

Passengers who had been imploring the young officer to yield yere in a panic. The cries of women and children were heard from the train.

M'ANIGAL GOT TWO

talked with the rebel leader. He had been commissioned a captain in the army and was in command of the troops in Guerrero, Puebla, and Morales. Figueroa added that he was now concentrating his forces on an attack on Igala.

General Advances of Rebel Force.

Once that point is taken, access to the plan he outlined, there was begun a general advance by the rebel forces in the south on the national capital.

PRESENTER EATS FOUR

FOEDYNAMING JOB DINNERS AND LUNCHEONS

Alleged Confession to an Under Shae- Taft Spends Another Very Busy off While on the Train. in New York.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 21.—More light was thrown on McManis's alleged confession of the dynamiting of the Llewellyn iron works in this city by Robert B. Taft, U. S. senator from this county, who had charge of McManis in the transcontinental trip just ended.

Brain said the prisoner voluntarily confessed to him while on the train.

McManis was taken to the city of Chicago brought up the subject the second day out of Chicago by asking what punishment he would receive if he were to turn state's evidence.

New York, April 21.—This was the last day of activity for Robert Taft. Although he did not return after 2 o'clock this morning, he did today. He was seen at a luncheon, extending from 11 until midnight. Yet he had the time to call on the governor in conference with local political leaders which was open.

He was also held at the residence of Henry Clough, the "Boss Hammer," where the prominent business men of the city were sitting as the leader of the business

[illegible]

"What did you get for it?"
"Two hundred dollars," responded McManigal. "That is the price for all such suits."
"Do you know Bryce?" was Brain's next question.
"Yes." Then McManigal said he would stop talking, but added: "When I get out there, I'll tell all about it."

McManigal Issues Statement.

NEW YORK LUTHERAN
CONFERENCE DIVISION

A New England Conference Called
Which Includes Hartford.

Portland, Conn., April 27—A division of the New York conference

Los Angeles, Cal., April 27.—John J. McNamara, secretary and treasurer of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' association, gave his first authorized statement as to his arrest to the Associated Press today. The statement follows:

"To the Brotherhood of Organized Labor in California and the United States.

"In this second attempt to crush and discredit the cause we represent, I realize fully the desperation of the enemies of labor against the cause, but I am sure that they will fail.

Declare His Innocence.

"That I am innocent of any infraction of the law in word or act needs no emphasis from me, for the truth is mighty and will prevail right speedily, and for it I shall contentedly wait.

"I send to all brothers and friends of union labor the world over my earnest and affectionate greetings, with the assurance that there is no

Washington, April 27. — When mothers' congress settled down to first session of business in the Astor hotel the interesting announcement was made that twins had not been postponed since the last convention. Your readers bear the names of De-

LOSES BOTH FEET ON EVE OF HIS WEDDING.
Fireman Fell Off Freight and Fifteen
Cars Passed Over Legs.

Stamford, Conn., April 27.—There have been many fearful scenes in the Stamford hospital, but none sadder than one yesterday, when Charles Hinds, a 24-year-old fireman, of No. 475 East 13th st., died.

Even the nurses could not restrain their tears when Hudson, with both fect off on above the ample, graceful dance. Miss Lynch wished to have the marriage ceremony performed at the appointed time in the hospital, but this was impossible, owing to the condition of Hudson, whose life hangs by a thread.

Last night Hudson's mother, who can mate with Miss Lynch, said that a marriage may be performed later when her legal condition permits.

Thudson fell off a freight train and a coal freight car passed over his legs.

SEVERAL SHOWS FOR
ST. MOUNTAIN

MOUNTAIN HOTEL BURNED.

Altoona, Pa., April 27.—The Hotel Wawatch at Glen Onoko, Pa.

